

Hospitality Host (Gate Security)

A great first impression makes a lasting one. Our Hospitality Host welcomes guests at the main gate. This individual is the eyes and ears at the front gate. A person in this position greets guests in a friendly and efficient manner, checks guests into the park, provides information about the park and answers questions, and makes sure all guests are registered. The Overnight Security Host is also responsible for maintaining quiet hours and is responsible for the non-medical emergency phone and can make decisions based on the needs of the guests. This requires basic knowledge of computers for opening and closing of gates and operation of a cash register. Shift work will be required.
